Group Classes

Group classes are a great way to improve your ability as an independent dancer! Come to class to learn how to dance the patterns on your own, and get more out of your private lessons!

Youth This class is designed to learn the basic building blocks of the major social dances, and to progressively move forward. Each week will focus on a different dance and will go at the speed of the class. New students are welcome to join at anytime.
 INSTRUCTOR Jackie Hammes

Newcomers Recommended for the brand new student, this class introduces the basic steps in the major ballroom dances: waltz, foxtrot, rumba, cha-cha, swing, and salsa.
 INSTRUCTOR James Meek

Beginners This group class focuses on learning the basic building blocks of the major social dances. Each week you'll work on a different dance & be introduced to beginning turns and other basic elements, along with basic techniques.
 INSTRUCTOR Jackie Hammes

Social Foundations This class focuses on creating a solid foundation for the educated social dancer. You'll manipulate the basic elements of the major social dances to create a variety of patterns and foundation level dancing techniques.
 INSTRUCTOR Jackie Hammes

Bronze Recommended for the more advanced student, this group class focuses on learning Bronze level patterns. Each week expand your knowledge and experience a new advanced Bronze pattern with the specific advanced techniques used in that pattern!
 INSTRUCTOR James Meek

Smooth Style & Technique This class focuses on the building of strong techniques used in the smooth dances. Each class works on a different technique, please check the calendar.
 INSTRUCTOR Lacey Bramblett

Rhythm Style & Technique This class focuses on the building of strong techniques used in the rhythm dances. Please check the calendar to see what we're working on this week!
